

PRESENTED BY UNION ARTS COUNCIL

Fourth Annual Competitive Art Exhibition

Saturday, December 5, 2015 11 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Farmerville United Methodist Church fellowship hall, 301 Anthony St., Farmerville

Eligibility: The Competitive Art Exhibition is open to all current and former Union Parish residents, including professionals, amateurs, and youth in grades nine through twelve.

Judging: Enoch Doyle Jeter, artist-in-residence at the University of Louisiana at Monroe, will juror the competition. Jeter is an award-winning lithographer and holds a Master's Degree in printmaking from New Mexico Highlands University in Las Vegas and a Bachelor's Degree from ULM .

Fees: $15 for professional artists; $10 for amateur artists; free for youth. Each artist may exhibit three (3) works. Additional adult works may be displayed for an additional fee of $5 per work, with a maximum of six (6) total works. Checks should be made payable to the Union Arts Council.

Size/Hanging: All adult works MUST be ready to hang with secure wire attached to the back. No saw tooth hangers will be accepted. All framed artwork MUST be under Plexiglas, with the exception of oils and acrylics. Maximum size is 36" wide. Youth art works may be unframed and will be displayed on tables.

Awards: Ribbons and cash awards in each category and for the People's Choice winner.

Categories & regulations: 2-dimensional art (painting, drawing, printmaking, photography), 3-dimensional art (sculpture, ceramics), and folk art. Entries must be original artworks. No copies of other artwork, "Masterwork" studies, or anything made from kits or commercial molds will be accepted. Works submitted in previous UAC Competitive Art Exhibitions may not be re-submitted. Works considered unsuitable for general viewing audience will not be accepted.

Sales: Artworks can be marked for sale. Union Arts Council will retain 30% commission.

Liability: Reasonable care will be taken during the Exhibition to ensure that all works are handled safely and kept safe. Neither the Union Arts Council, (its members or agents), show sponsors, nor Claiborne Electric are responsible for damage or loss of any works or damages caused by or to displayed works.

For further information: contact Bob Ward, exhibition coordinator, at 318-791-8038

Proceeds of the Competitive Art Exhibition will benefit selected Union Parish educational art programs that participate in the Exhibition

Union Arts Council, P.O. Box 802, Farmerville, LA 71241

Schedule

Friday, Dec. 4 – Deliver entries to Farmerville United Methodist Church fellowship hall, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Saturday, Dec. 5 – Exhibition open to public, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Saturday, Dec. 5 – Artists pick up artwork at 4 p.m.

ENTRY FORM - Place on front of artwork, upper left corner. Make extra copies if needed. Must be completed in full. PLEASE PRINT

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Title of artwork: _____

Price: $ _____ OR _____ NFS (Not For Sale)

Status (circle one) adult professional adult amateur youth

Category: (circle one)

2-dimensional: Painting Drawing Print Photo

3-dimensional: Sculpture Ceramics

Folk Art

ENTRY FORM - Place on front of artwork, upper left corner. Make extra copies if needed. Must be completed in full. PLEASE PRINT

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Title of artwork: _____

Price: $ _____ OR _____ NFS (Not For Sale)

Status (circle one) adult professional adult amateur youth

Category: (circle one)

2-dimensional: Painting Drawing Print Photo

3-dimensional: Sculpture Ceramics

Folk Art